Meditation MATTHEW 23:23-24

²³“Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you tithe mint and dill and cumin, and have neglected the weightier matters of the law: justice and mercy and faithfulness. These you ought to have done, without neglecting the others. ²⁴You blind guides, straining out a gnat and swallowing a camel!”

Corporate Confession of Sin

Eternal Father, you are good beyond all thought, but I am wretched, miserable and blind. My lips are ready to confess, but my heart is slow to feel, and my ways reluctant to amend. I bring my soul to you; break it, wound it, bend it, mold it. Unmask to me sin's deformity, that I may hate it, abhor it, flee from it. My faculties have been a weapon of revolt against you, I have misused my strength and served the adversary of your kingdom. Give me grace to weep over my folly. Grant me to know that the way of transgressors is hard, the evil paths are wretched paths, that to depart from You is to lose all good.

All these sins I mourn, lament, and for them cry pardon. Work in me more profound and abiding repentance; Give me the fullness of a godly grief that trembles and stands in awe, yet ever trusts and loves, which is ever powerful and ever confident; Grant that through the tears of repentance I may see more clearly the brightness and glories of the saving cross.
