Welcome & Announcements

Call to Worship *

PSALM 139: 1-6

Leader: O LORD, you have searched us and known us!

People: You know when we sit down and when we rise up; you discern our thoughts from afar.

Leader: You search out our path and our lying down and are acquainted with all our ways.

People: Even before a word is on our tongue, behold, O LORD, you know it altogether.

Leader: You hem us in, behind and before, and lay your hand upon us.

People: Such knowledge is too wonderful for us; it is high; We cannot attain it.

New Testament Reading

ROMANS 11:33-12:8

Oh, the depth of the riches and wisdom and knowledge of God! How unsearchable are his judgments and how inscrutable his ways! "For who has known the mind of the Lord, or who has been his counselor?" "Or who has given a gift to him that he might be repaid?" For from him and through him and to him are all things. To him be glory forever. Amen.

I appeal to you therefore, brothers, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship. Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that by testing you may discern what is the will of God, what is good and acceptable and perfect.

For by the grace given to me I say to everyone among you not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think, but to think with sober judgment, each according to the measure of faith that God has assigned. For as in one body we have many members, and the members do not all have the same function, so we, though many, are one body in Christ, and individually members one of another. Having gifts that differ according to the grace given to us, let us use them: if prophecy, in proportion to our faith; if service, in our serving; the one who teaches, in his teaching; the one who exhorts, in his exhortation; the one who contributes, in generosity; the one who leads, with zeal; the one who does acts of mercy, with cheerfulness.
