Meditation

ROBERT W. EVANS

The faithful shepherd is the one who feeds, knows, loves, leads, and protects God's sheep. Supremely, the Good Shepherd is Jesus. But proximately, the role of shepherding has been given to pastors; we are the undershepherds, if you will, who have been called and charged with both the responsibility and privilege of faithfully feeding and caring for God's flock.

Call to Worship *

TITUS 2:11-15

The grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation for all people, training us to renounce ungodliness and worldly passions, and to live self-controlled, upright, and godly lives in the present age, waiting for our blessed hope, the appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior Jesus Christ, who gave himself for us to redeem us from all lawlessness and to purify for himself a people for his own possession who are zealous for good works.

HEBREWS 13:20-21

Now may the God of peace who brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, the great shepherd of the sheep, by the blood of the eternal covenant, equip you with everything good that you may do his will, working in us that which is pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ, to whom be glory forever and ever. Amen.

Gloria Patri *

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost. As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be, world without end. Amen. Amen.
